

SEIU Employee Memo

The SHA has been utilizing the broadcast function in circumstances where a COVID-19 need is identified and efforts to find staff to perform this work through existing call-in/relief processes and Labour Pool have been unsuccessful. These messages may be broadcast to a large group of staff or targeted to specific classifications/positions. In some cases this work may be non-regular work of the classification/position but staff may have a transferable skills, training, and/or abilities that closely aligns with the need. If you are interested and available to perform the work, please view the request on the Staff Scheduling Website to express your interest. If not you have not registered for the site yet, please click here: SHA Staff Scheduling
